

Doggie Dojo

Discover the Path to Life with Your Dog

Green Belt Manual

GREEN BELT MANUAL

What are the Green belt requirements?

ATTITUDE

- Maintains a notebook of instructional materials, exams, and personal record
- Continues to learn and apply proper handling and greeting
- Provides a proper example for white belt students to follow
- Helps White Belts learn how to use their handbooks
- Is able to demonstrate behaviors taught in class
- Volunteers in out-of-class activities [e.g., belt tests, paw treks, competitions]

KNOWLEDGE

- Knows how to balance dog's reinforcers.
- Knows how to hold the leash properly
- Knows the disaccosiation time for behavior
- Knows dog's comfortable distance from one another
- Knows when a marker is used correctly

SKILLS

- Dog has learned all skills within the Beginner Obedience Pack
-

BEGINNER OBEDIENCE PACK

Attention To Name-

Treats open palm next to dog's head (Indoors)

Sit-

Sits on first attempt (No Food In Hand)

Stand-

Stands on first attempt (No Food In Hand)

Down-

Downs on first attempt (No Food In Hand)

Sit For Greeting-

Sits at side while guardian shakes stranger's hand

Walking-

Walks on leash in strait line for 10 feet (Without Pulling)

Come-

Comes on first attempt from 10 feet away

Duration Stay-

Stays for 1 minute while owner is 1 foot away

Playing With Toys-

Plays with owner with favorite toy (Indoors)

Leave It-

Leaves food being dropped on the ground alone
